DEMOCRATIC TICKET STRENGTHENED BY ADDITION OF ROBERT GODDARD, CANDIDATE FOR STATE TREASURER

Like His Father, Mr. Goddard Has Always Been a Staunch Democrat—Educated in the Public Schools of This City. He Has Risen By His Own Efforts To Position of Trust.

ROBERT DEFOREST GODDARD
Democratic Nominee For State Treasurer

The Democratic state ticket has been favored with an exceptionally staunch young man to run for state treasurer. The ticket has been greatly strengthened and the candidate for state treasurer will be instrumental in the victory that is apparent for the Democratic ticket this fall.

Robert De Forest Goddard is the Democratic candidate for state treasurer. He is a Bridgeport boy, having been born here April 11, 1881. His father, Walter Goddard, was at one time collector of the port for Connecticut and for a number of years was Democratic town chairman. Under the guidance of Mr. Goddard, the Democratic ticket was always victorious and a singular thing was that an election under his leadership was always successful. Mr. Goddard's mother was Katherine Gray, a daughter of one of Bridgeport's oldest families.

Always a Democrat. In political faith Mr. Goddard has always been a staunch Democrat and has served his party conscientiously and faithfully. His early education was received in the public grammar schools of the city. Following his graduation from grammar school he entered the Bridgeport High school at the age of 15 years, leaving in his sophomore year to enter the Bridgeport Trust company. With this institution he has been 25 years and from the position of clerk he has risen by his own effort and initiative to the position of assistant treasurer. Mr. Goddard served on the Board of Education in 1915, being elected to the position on the Democratic ticket. The entire Goddard family has always been connected with the Democratic party and upholders of its principles. Mr. Goddard's brother, Walter, of Stratford, has been named to run for state senator on the Democratic ticket in the 25th Senatorial district and it is the hope of the two brothers that they will meet on Capitol Hill, Hartford, shortly after Nov. 7. Mr. Goddard's brother, Edward, and old time reporter on the Evening Farmer, now The Times, is Democratic town chairman of Springfield, Mass.

Doesn't Rely On Luck. Though Mr. Goddard is by nature lucky, he will not depend on luck for his election. His plans have been formulated for an intensive campaign and he plans to accompany other Democratic nominees for various offices throughout the state and present to the people the issues why the Democratic state ticket ought to be swept into office.

"I conscientiously believe that the Democratic ticket has better prospects for victory this year than it ever did before in the history of Connecticut Democracy," Mr. Goddard said today. "The ticket is greatly strengthened by Mayor David Fitzgerald and Thomas J. Spillacy. These men are fighting men who are staunch sons of Democracy and who base their claims for public office on their merits and the merits of the Democratic state party which is the only party of the people."

For Business Administration. "I believe that the cities will swing the election this year and not the small towns which generally go Republican. I believe that Bridgeport will give the Democracy a substantial majority over the Republican contenders for office. The popularity of Mayor Fitzgerald and Mr. Spillacy here will largely contribute to the success of the ticket."

"If I am elected state treasurer I will conduct the office of state treasurer on the same plane as I would conduct my office of assistant treasurer with the Bridgeport Trust company. I will use the same care and discretion. I will be the servant of the people whom I will serve conscientiously and faithfully."

Banker 25 Years. Mr. Goddard is very modest about his qualifications for the office of state treasurer. His excellent record with the Bridgeport Trust company is sufficient to elect him. He is a banker of 25 years' experience and his keen knowledge of matters pertaining to finance make him an exceptionally strong candidate for the office.

Mr. Goddard is prominent in the social life of the city and is a member of several civic and fraternal bodies here. He is a member of Corinthian Lodge, and Jerusalem Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and is also a member of the Konekapotannah Tribe of Red Men. He is a member of the Kiwanis club, the Chamber of Commerce and the board of directors of the Bridgeport Y. M. C. A. He is well known throughout banking circles of Connecticut through his membership in the American Bankers' Association.

Mr. Goddard is also actively identified with the Fifth District Democratic club. He was named after Judge Robert E. DeForest, Bridgeport's only Democratic congressman.

Georgia Has Youngest Girl Lawyer

Miss Thelma Harrell, of Savannah, Ga., at seventeen, has passed the State bar examination and is qualified to practice law in that State. She graduated from Savannah High School when she was sixteen and had been pursuing a night course in law. Her ranking in the State examination was the highest ever taken by a woman. Judge Peter Meldren admitted her to the bar.

The Rugs of the Orient

What wonderful stories and tales of Oriental charm are immediately brought to mind when looking at these rugs. The magic rug of Arabian Nights' fame could have been no more wondrous in its texture and weave than some of the silken Persians displayed in our rug gallery.

Warm and rich looking are the rugs of deep tinted blues, old rose and dull reds with their emblematic borders and fringed ends.

Lighter colorings with much cream and gold, rose and soft tan, all with a suggestion of the Orient about them.

Sizes given are approximate

Beluchistans, 2 1/2 x 4 1/2,	$39.00 and $50.00	Dozars, 3 1/2 x 6 1/2,	$125.00 and $135.00
Kemerehs, 4 1/2 x 5, $185.00		Sarouks, 4 1/2 x 6, $185.00
Lilahans, 3 x 5, $110.00		Iran Mossuls, 3 x 6, $85.00
Bergamos, 3 x 5, $45.00 and $50.00		Iran Namazis, 3 x 5, $75.00

Some of these rugs may be had in carpet sizes.

It would be hard indeed to find a more colorful assemblage of Oriental Rugs than these in the Read Rug Gallery. Every rug a gem, picked individually, as if to give special pleasure to the one who happily may select it.

ORANGE AND WHITE COLOR SCHEME AT AUTUMN WEDDING

Miss Freda H. Shirwindt, daughter of Mrs. Ross Shirwindt of 333 Myrtle Avenue, became the bride of Jack Lorber of New Haven at a pretty wedding last night at 7:30 at the home of the bride's mother. The house was most attractively decorated with autumn flowers and foliage and a color scheme of orange and white was used. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Eliaz Seltzer.

Miss Shirwindt wore a handsome gown of white canton crepe, trimmed with satin ribbons and fashioned with side panels which reached the floor. A coronet of pearls edged with orange blossoms held in place the long veil of tulle. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and blue of the valley.

Mrs. Jack Shirwindt was the escort of honor, wearing black panne velvet, trimmed with orange crepe and carrying a bouquet of orange chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Ida Nodick, was attired in orange color satin with an overskirt of white tulle. She carried a dainty bouquet of roses.

For the best man Mr. Lorber chose Dr. Aaron Levowich of New Haven and for ushers, Samuel Shirwindt of New York and Jack Shirwindt of this city, brothers of the bride; Al Berman of New York and Ben Schycon of New Haven.

Following the ceremony a very large reception was held and over 250 guests were present. Late in the evening the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Washington, D. C. Mrs. Lorber's traveling costume consisted of a suit of dark blue polart with a hat to match. Upon their return they will reside at 53 Frank street, New Haven.

For some time Mrs. Lorber has been employed as a stenographer at the office of the D. and C. Oil company while Mr. Lorber is connected with the C. J. Bates company of New Haven. The bride has been fete a number of times since the announcement of her engagement.

Don't Envy Perfect Health—Enjoy It!

You Can't Be Happy When Every Day Brings That Nagging Backache and That Tired, Weak, All-Worn-Out Feeling.

ARE you one of those unfortunate folks who is always envying the good health and happiness of others? Do you arise in the morning lame and stiff? Drag through the day with your back a dull, unceasing ache? Evening will find you "all played out," thinking only of a little rest before tomorrow's weary grind? Do friends and family wonder why you are so discouraged and out of sorts?

It's time, then, you were giving some attention to your kidneys! The kidneys, you know, are the blood-filters. Let them fall behind and the effect on blood and nerves is quickly apparent. Your back aches, you suffer sharp, stabbing pains and feel dull, nervous, irritable and depressed. Your head aches, you are dizzy, and apt to be annoyed by bladder irregularities.

Heed these early warnings! Realize that your kidneys have fallen behind, and give them the help they need before some serious kidney sickness develops. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have brought new health and strength to thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

"Use Doan's," Say These Bridgeport Folks:

JAMES R. BANNERMAN, painter & decorator, 261 Gilbert St., says: "I had considerable trouble with my kidneys and I blame the exposure to drafts for bringing on the trouble. My back became lame and painful and my kidneys did not act as they should. I bought Doan's Kidney Pills at the Hinde Pharmacy and they cured me entirely." Statement given July 14, 1919.

On October 8, 1921, Mr. Bannerman added: "My cure has been a lasting one and I enjoy the best of health."

MRS. SAMUEL OLIVER, 1007 Hancock Ave., says: "I was ailing with lame back and disordered kidneys. When doing my housework, a sharp pain shot through the small of my back and it seemed as though my back were ready to break. My kidneys acted too freely and my strength seemed to fail. I didn't feel like doing my housework but as Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, I procured some at the Riker Drug Store and they set my kidneys to acting right."
